Coca-Cola Andina confirms distribution agreement with Estrella Galicia

Santiago, Chile – September 16, 2021 – Coca-Cola Andina ("Andina"), together with the Coca-Cola system in Brazil, confirms that it has signed a distribution agreement in Brazil with the brewery Estrella Galicia. This agreement is part of the long-term strategy of the Coca-Cola system to complement its preium beer portfolio in Brazil.

Miguel Angel Peirano, Chief Executive Officer of Coca-Cola Andina, explained that "With the signing of this agreement, we continue to strengthen the portfolio of beer brands that we distribute in Brazil, incorporating premium and global brands such as Estrella Galicia and 1906. We are sure that, with the granularity of our logistics network and sales force, we will be able to significantly increase the presence of Estrella Galicia in our territory".

Coca-Cola Andina is among the three largest Coca-Cola bottlers in Latin America, servicing franchised territories with almost 54.6 million people, delivering 734.6 million unit cases or 4,171 million liters of soft drinks, juices, bottled water, beer and other alcoholic beverages during 2020. Coca-Cola Andina has the franchise to produce and commercialize Coca-Cola products in certain territories in Argentina (through Embotelladora del Atlántico), in Brazil (through Rio de Janeiro Refrescos), in Chile, (through Embotelladora Andina) and in all of Paraguay (through Paraguay Refrescos). The Chadwick Claro, Garcés Silva, Said Handal and Said Somavía families control Coca-Cola Andina in equal parts. The Company's value generation proposal is to become a Total Beverage Company, using existing resources efficiently and sustainably, developing a relationship of excellence with consumers of its products, as well as with its collaborators, customers, suppliers, the community in which it operates and with its strategic partner The Coca-Cola Company, in order to increase ROIC for shareholders in the long term.
