Coca-Cola Andina Announces Successful International Corporate Bond Placement of US$575 million

New York City, September 26th, 2013 - Coca-Cola Andina (NYSE: AKOA/AKOB) ("Andina" or "the Company") announced today the pricing of US$575 million of its bonds sold in the international capital markets. The use of proceeds of these bonds is to finance Andina's acquisition of 100% of the capital stock of Companhia de Bebidas Ipiranga ("Ipiranga"), whose assets are valued at R$1,218 million. The Ipiranga acquisition is expected to allow Rio de Janeiro Refrescos Ltda. ("RJR"), a subsidiary of Coca-Cola Andina in Brazil, to capture operating and logistics synergies as a result of the integration of the businesses.

The offer, led by J.P. Morgan, Itaú BBA and Santander GBM, consisted of a US$575 million, 10-year bond, with a 5.025% yield, which implies a 237.5 basis points spread over the benchmark (US 10-Year Treasury Note). The offering was rated by Fitch and S&P "A-" and "BBB" with stable outlook, respectively.

Miguel Ángel Peirano, CEO of Coca-Cola Andina, stated "This bond issuance in the international markets, which will finance the Ipiranga acquisition, confirms the high confidence that investors have in Coca-Cola Andina, in its growth strategy and its development possibilities within the Coca-Cola system. We believe that our Company is a unique value-creation vehicle, not only for our shareholders and bondholders, but also for our clients and employees".
